

Stockton University and the New Jersey State Council of the Arts, in cooperat on with PCK Media, proudly co-produced a segment for State of the Arts. State of the Arts, an award-winning program featuring documentary shorts about an extraordinary range of performance and visual art sts throughout New Jersey's best performance spaces, took their programming ef orts to highlight a Stockton University featured art st.

In November of 2017 Lisa Honaker, Dean of Arts and Humanit es produced, along with co-producers Nancy Messina, Assistant Dean of Arts and Humanit es and Pantelia (Lia) Bairaktaris, Associate Director of the Of ce of Research and Sponsored Programs, a segment which featured in an episode of State of the Arts dedicated to renowned art st Georgios Kordis. Mr. Kordis' mural "Hellenism Through the Ages in Nature, Spirit and the Arts" is currently on display in the Constantelos Reading Room in Stockton's library.

Dean Honaker, Nancy and Lia produced the first part of the story in Greece, both at a Greek Orthodox Church in Athens as well as in the actual studio where Georgios creates his impressive pieces. The second part of the story was produced by Susan Waller of PCK Media and filmed in the Constantelos Reading Room in March 2018.

The episode aired May 27th on WHYY and NJTV.
